The exhibition features over 60 items (sets) of artefacts related to the Institute and its alumni, as well as around 125 historical photographs and supplementary exhibits. Complemented by clippings, archives, reconstructed campus scenes, and multimedia presentations, this exhibition brings alive the establishment and development of the Institute and explores the teaching environment, campus life and development of staff and students. Visitors will enjoy a multifaceted view of the Institute’s founding history and, through the stories of its people, learn of the Institute’s pivotal role in cultivating talent and its contributions to developing the country.

師生貢獻

THE REMARKABLE CONTRIBUTIONS OF TA TEH'S PEOPLE

達德師生響應中國共產黨的號召北上投身戰事，或為籌組新政府、建設新中國作準備。直至改革開放後，達德學院校友把握機遇在不同崗位服務，為國家發展作出確實而重要的貢獻。

Many Ta Teh's teachers and students heeded the Communist Party of China's calls of duty, pausing their teaching or studies to join guerrilla fighting in the Chinese Mainland, or to assist in preparing for the establishment of a new government and the building of New China. After the beginning of Reform and Opening-up, the Ta Teh people made significant contributions to the development of the country and society across various fields.

餘韻綿長

AN ENDURING LEGACY

1949年2月，達德學院被迫關閉；雖然辦學時間短暫，但師生深厚的情誼依然延續不斷，促成各地校友會的成立。達德學院昔日校舍亦因其重要的歷史價值而獲保存。

In February 1949, Ta Teh Institute had to cease operation. Although the Institute's lifespan was short, the long-lasting bond between its faculty and students led to the establishment of various alumni associations. Also, the school buildings in the ex-Ta Teh campus have been preserved to recognise and remind people of the historical importance of Ta Teh Institute.
